Christmas 2020 Lots of you, I know, are concerned about what will be possible this Christmas in terms of church services.

While nothing is guaranteed let me reassure you that a full programme of carol services, in whatever form they can be, is planned, as well as services on Christmas Eve and Day. They're in the diary for now and our hope is that we can go ahead with all of them as proposed but we'll have to wait and see what is permitted. God bless you and keep us all safe and healthy.

Deanery Prayer Diary This excellent new resource to assist our praying for local people and places in Ross & Archenfield deanery will be available to download and print out from the website on Sunday. Edition No.1 runs to the end of the year.

For Your Prayers

On White Ribbon Day pray for those who wear white ribbons to demonstrate their opposition to violence and solidarity with those who experience it, and for all victims of the violence of others and especially for families where violence is commonplace.

Church: for the Church of Bermuda; locally, please pray for all ways in which we communicate our faith and news about our churches in the community, giving thanks for the Diocesan communications team and its work.

World: pray that the impetus and momentum of the Black Lives Matter movement may continue to impact on hate and prejudice throughout our world, remembering too all who are abused, excluded or exploited by others because of their race or their faith.

People: give thanks this week for all who have ensured that worship has been offered and effective communication maintained through lockdown and beyond; on St Cecilia's Day remember for all who sing or make music in our churches and pray for the time when all will be able to meet again; pray for all carers especially relatives and friends whose dedication to caring for loved ones often isolates them from the community leaving them feeling isolated and unsupported and pray for all that is done to make carers aware of their rights and sources of help.

Remember this week Ian Ross and Alexander Letts and all who are unwell, praying for healing and wholeness for them and all who mourn the loss of loved ones, especially the family of Margaret Durham, asking for the comfort of God's presence with them.
